

TREETURES® thank PANTHER AND BUNNYCAT
for sharing their song, “Fall into Fall”

Are you ready
For a new season
One with colorful leaves
And apple eatin’
If so
join us now
As we fall into fall
We’ll show you how...

Are you ready
For a new season
One with colorful leaves
And apple eatin’
If so
join us now
As we fall into fall
We’ll show you how...

Fall into Fall
We gonna
Fall into Fall
The leaves are changing
Summer’s waning
And now’s the time of year we
Fall into Fall

Pick up that coat
And put it on
The air’s getting colder
Now autumn has dawned
Button your buttons
And zipper your zips
Wave to the birds
As they go on a trip

We’ll rake some leaves
Make a pile to jump in
Then we’ll go to a patch
And we’ll pick out a pumpkin
We’ll carve that guy
A good and funny face
Then we’ll roast the seeds
For the yummy, yummy taste (ya’ll)

Fall into Fall
We gonna
Fall into Fall
The leaves are changing
Summer’s waning
And now’s the time of year we

Pumpkin spice is everywhere you look now
No matter what it is you’re looking for
From pumpkin spice lattes to pumpkin spice tea
To pumpkin spice ice cream and pumpkin spice cheese
How far will it go ‘til we see the end
Of this whole spicy pumpkin trend
(I don’t even LIKE pumpkin!)

One Two Three Four
Watch those leaves fall down to the floor
Five Six Seven Eight
Pick up a rake and make it look great
Three Five Seven Nine
Do a spin just one more time
Seven Eight Nine Ten
Let’s do the whole thing all over again

One Two Three Four
Watch those leaves fall down to the floor
Five to the Six to the Seven to the Eight
Pick up a rake and make it look great
Three Five Seven Nine
Seven Eight Nine Ten
And later on we’ll pick it up all over again

Fall into Fall
We gonna
Fall into Fall
The leaves are changing
Summer’s waning
And now’s the time of year we
Fall into Fall
